

Why do they want to silence you?

These are some of the corporate interests behind Prop. 75, a measure designed to silence the voices of everyday Californians.

- Ameriquest Capital - $250,000
The home loan company has paid millions to settle accusations of overcharging clients and hiding fees.
- The California Business Properties Association - $200,000
- The New Majority Political Action Committee - $150,000
A committee representing partisan business owners.
- The late Wal-Mart heir John T. Walton - $100,000
- Eureka mortgage broker Robin P. Arkley II - $100,000
- Los Angeles investment banker Frank Baxter - $75,000
- Beverly Hills businesswoman Paula Kent Meehan - $50,000
- Watson Land Co. of Carson - $10,000

Why are they willing to spend millions to silence your voice?

Corporate donors don't want you interfering with their special interest agenda.

Your voice is your most powerful tool. Protect your asset.
